Misunderstanding Between Owen and His Newspaper Backers — Adul-tery Charge Brought Because Cannon Sentence Did Not Satisfy the Storm-starters-Action Postponed.

case.

It has been known for some time past that Owen expected to spring another sensation soon. For nine months past he has been traveling about the state, engaged in the work of securing evidence in cases of this kind.

As Owen is not a wealthy man, there has been much cariosity on the part of the public to know who paid for his time and put up for the expense. The fact that the New York Journal and the Salt Lake Tribune are given advance copies of his complaints is regarded by many as explaining the source from which his remuneration comes.

Cannon's Fine Paid.

John M. Cannon deposited a check for $100 with the clerk of the district court yesterday forenoon in payment of Angus M. Cannon's fine. The action bein a criminal one, there were no cost taxed the defendant.

Why Adultery Is Charged.

fense is a felony, punishable by imprisonment not exceeding three years, while unlawful cohabitation is a misdemeanor, with a maximum penalty of six months imprisonment and £56 fine. There is a question in the minds of many prominent lawyers whether Grant can be tried on the charge of adultery. According to section 4.210, revised statutes of Utah, adultery may be committed by a married woman with a mun who is unmarried, in which case the man alone is deemed guitty of adultery, or by a married man and a wossan who is unmarried, in which case the man alone is deemed guitty of adultery. Some attorneys contend that as Mrs. Wells-Grant was Keber J. Grant's plural wife, Mr. Grant might be guilty of unlawful cohabitation with her, but accreely of adultery, unless, in the eye of the law, she were resistated on or

Theodore Cleghorn, who enlisted in battery A May 5 last year, returned to his home in this city yesterday from Manila, looking hale and sound, although he is brown as a Filipino,

When seen last night Mr. Cleghorn expressed himself as being very glad to be home again, but when questioned as to his services he was very modest about talking, and would not say anywith the Utah batteries. It was learned, however, that he had seen some active service with the famous section 6 of

He was in the trenches before the fall of Manila and participated in the battles around the waterworks and pumping station. While Mr. Cleghorn would not talk about himself he tells a very thrilling story of the death of Dr. Harry Young, having been a member of the section that Dr. Young was in search of when he met his death.

Mr. Cleghorn was released on account of the death of his father in time to get home several weeks before the rest of the battery boys. Speaking of the country, he says that while it is a very pretty place it is not at all suitable for white men do live in—at least, a unijerity of white men. Mr. Cleghorn has a high opinion of the bravery of the Filiphose, and thinks that they will not be subdued for a long time unless

CLEGHORN AT HOME MONTANA'S FAMOUS SENATOR

W. A. Clark, the Millionaire Mine Owner, Inspects His Utah Property.

Among the many relies that Mr. Cleghorn has in his possession he prizes none more highly than a Filipine battle diag, which was captured at Maiolos. He obtained this flag in that city a number of days after the battle. Mr. Cleghorn left Manila on the 18th of last month on the Indiana, and reports having a plensant voyage. The Indiana was brought home by a Filipine crow, the white crew having deserted at Manila.

Senator W. A. Clark of Montana, for Utah and, in fact, all the mining states, Mr. Clark considers very bright man in the United States, a man who buys mines, beet sugar plantations and paintings by the old masters of Europe having a plensant voyage. The Indiana was brought home by a Filipine crow, the white crew having deserted at Manila. and registered as any common American should. The senator was accompanied by his expert mining engineer, E. W. Clark, and by his stenographer, A. Underwood. The party had had no dinner, as their train was late at Ogden; a large quantity of mail was awaiting him, he had business engage ments here in Salt Lake, and he was to leave early this morning for the Ophir mine, so that he had little time for interviews. He did, however, take time to tell The Herald that his present trip was one of business purely. He proposes, he said, to visit the Ophir and investigate his interests there. His next move will be into California, from there into Arizona and New Mexico, in all of which states he has mining interests.

As to whether he would invest more extensively in Utah mining properties at this time. Mr. Clark said he could not say. He never could say whether or not he would buy anything until a significant of the Amelgamated Copper or not he would buy anything until a significant of the Amelgamated Copper for investigation. If he saw properties he considered bargains he would extend the contest for Democratic supremacy.

"It is a matter I know little about. "It is a matter I know little about care little of. On account of the relations that have existed between discuss any of his husiness transactions. No one in Butte knows much about the trainsfer, and Daly is the president of the Amelgamated Copper of the contest for Democratic supremacy.

"It is a matter I know little about of the labout of the first of the Amelgamated Copper company. The changed conditions can not affect Butte in the least. That city of the conditions can not affect Butte in the least that of Montana. Times were never better. Mining interests, eartile, husiness and every industry is thriving."

Professor L. E. Eggertsen and County Superintendent James L. Brown of Utah county returned yesterday from Los Angeles. Chi., where they attended the convention of the National Teacher's association. They speak with great enthusiasm of the success of the gathering and the manner in which all were treated by the people of Los Angeles. The exhibit of the University of Utah, they state, was highly complimented, especially the drawing exhibit of Professor Evans. The only regret expressed was that Utah had no headquarjers, which they considered a serious neffect for which some one should be held responsible.

(Graind Junction Star.)
On Saturday last two traveling elders of the Mormon church, William McLeed and William Gee, destring to hold services at De Reque, applied to the trustees of the M. E. church for the use of their house of worship, but were denied the same. The refusal has caused much adverse comment. Many who contributed to the building of the church did so with the understanding that the use of the building was to be permitted to all denominations.
